SMUGGLING YELLOW FEVER. Measures Taken to Prevent Yellow Jack's Introduction.

Surgeon General Hamilton of the Marine Hospital Service has returned from Florida and is now in New York. The result of his visit to Jacksonville is that an understanding has been effected with the Florida State Board of Health. whereby another revenue cutter has been ordered to cruise along the coast to assist in the work of keeping out small smuggling vessels that are apt to bring epidemic diseases into the coun-try. Governor Fleming of Florida has requested in a recent letter to the Secre tary of the Treasury the co-operation of the Government to assist in patroling the coast in order to prevent the intro-duction of yellow fever from smuggling

Mrs. Wanamaker's Home.

Mrs. Wanamaker's Home.

The handsome residence of Postmaster-General Wanamaker on I street is being put in readiness for the arrival of his wife and daughters from Europe during returns. Most of the furniture now in the house is the property of ex-Secretary Whitney, left there until the Postmaster could make arrangements to furnish it himself. Mr. Wanamaker has purchased a portion of the furniture, much of which was originally the property of ex-Secretary Frelinghaysen. It will be entirely renovated, as it shows the marks of age. Mr. Wanamaker's collection of pictures, except those loaned to the Paris Exposition, have been hing in his Washington home. Mrs. Thomas Wanamaker will not return during the present season.

Temple Officers. Officers for the ensuing quarter were elected yesterday at the meeting of Annie K. Bond's Holloway Indepedent Temple in Wenn's Hall last night as follows: John Daneuhower, C. T.; Grace Bowbeer, V. T.; Harry Hodes, secretary; Helen Reid, F. S.; Walter Brown, treasurer; Eva Young, chaplain; Percy Reardon, marshal; Lulu Danenhower, guard; Ernest Dupre, sentine!; Annie Harpor, R. S.; Elsie Sillera, L. S.; May Shiel, assistant secretary; Lillie Burgee, deputy marshal; Kate Bowbeer, pusulot.

Bible Society Officers.

The board of directors of the Washington Bible Society held their annual meeting last evening at 6 o'clock in the parlor of the Y. M. C. A. The meeting was presided over by the president of the board, Dr. A. W. Pitzer. After the reading of the annual reports of the president, scentary and treasurer, which were adopted, an election followed, which resulted in the recitetion of all the old officers. The meeting then adjourned.

By the Polariscopic Test. Assistant Secretary Tichenor has decided that sugars are Hable to duty according to the polariscopic test. The decision sustains an appeal of the American Sugar Rolling Company from the decision of the Collector of Customs at San Francisco who had assessed sugars in excess of the polariscopic basis on the theory that they had been artificially colored.

Dissatisfied Stockholders. The stockholders in the Emuner Union Telephone Company, who were formerly directors of the Emuner Improved Telephone Company, leid a meeting yesterday to make a final appeal for a statement as to the condition of the company. If their request is not complied with they propose to bring suit.

Where the Cyclers Will Meet.

Hagerstown, Md., has been settled upon as the place for the annual meet of the Lesgue of American Wheelmen. Washington was mentioned as the place for the meet, but Hagerstown was decided upon as the most convenient. A number of Washington wheelmen will ride the distance, a little over 100 miles.

A Turpentine Claim Allowed. Sophia B. Duffy was vestoriay given a verdict for $15,970, in the Court of Claims, for turpentine destroyed during the war. The court has reported a finding of the facts as to the French Spoliation cases and certified them to Congress.
